Windermere Welcomes New Agents

Rancho Mirage (Calif.) – May 12, 2012 – Windermere Real Estate attracts the finest agents in the industry. Real Estate professionals recently joining Windermere's Rancho Mirage office at 71691 Highway 111 include Mercedes Godfrey, Denise Strand, and Joe Zingg. Mercedes Godfrey combines the tools and insight gained as an accomplished business owner for over 20 years with her comprehensive understanding of today's Coachella Valley real estate market. Denise Strand was drawn to Windermere's image and reputation, and the professionalism of the company's agents. Among her many attributes, her clients appreciate her openness and honesty. Joe Zingg brings his Bachelor's degree in management as well as the skills and experience of an impressive 30-year career with the Palm Springs Police Department. Joe counts architecture and community planning among his many interests. Joining Windermere's Palm Desert Portola office at 73993 Highway 111 is Norman Mittelmann. Norman brings more than 15 years of Southern California real estate acumen to Windermere, including extensive experience in San Diego County's Del Mar and Rancho Santa Fe markets. Clients love his friendly, easygoing personality, and the depth he brings from a substantial and noteworthy career in opera; he currently contributes as Vice President and Artistic Director with the Opera Showcase of the Desert. Joining Windermere's La Quinta office at 47250 Washington Street is Meg Maryatt. Meg's impressive background encompasses a colorful career in the entertainment industry, including work with industry giants Paramount, Warner Brothers, Fox, Universal and Sony. Honing tools developed while managing her own music publishing business, Meg applies her passion for real estate and her impressive service skills to her appreciative clients. She includes Coachella Valley golf communities among her areas of expertise.
