Bennion Deville Homes Welcomes Managing Broker Dan Hill

LA MESA, CA – NOVEMBER 15, 2015 – Bennion Deville Homes is proud to welcome Dan Hill as the new Managing Broker of the La Mesa Village office, located at 8277 La Mesa Boulevard. A veteran of the US Navy, Dan earned his real estate license in 1996 and his Broker's License in 2000. He currently serves as Vice Chair of the Greater San Diego Association of REALTORS® (SDAR) Professional Standards Committee (PSC) and Professional Standards Executive Committee (PSEC), and has served on the Grievance Committee. Dan is a graduate of the University of New Mexico, holds multiple certifications, and is a California Association of REALTORS® (CAR) Certified Professional Standards Trainer.

Over the course of his real estate career, Dan has gained a wealth of knowledge that he happily imparts to help his fellow real estate professionals grow and flourish in the industry. He has helped hundreds of clients and reviewed over 1,000 transaction files, giving him considerable insight into the management and flow of residential real estate transactions. From agent-to-client and agent-to-agent relationships, to forms review and legal aspects of a real estate transaction, to marketing in the digital age, Dan is a critical resource that many colleagues gravitate toward for guidance. "I genuinely enjoy helping others and passing on my knowledge and experience in the industry," Dan says.

As a result of running his own brokerage and his vision for the industry, Dan has built a strong foundation of marketing prowess, based in traditional methodologies with contemporary strategies and techniques. “You have to go with what’s stood the test of time, such as print publications, mailers, and other collateral pieces, but you also have to infuse those tried-and-true methods with new age marketing concepts, such as websites, social media, podcasts, and blogs,” Dan adds. Dan looks forward to sharing these ideas with his team at the La Mesa Village office.

Complementing his strong professional accolades and accomplishments, Dan abides by a strict code of ethics that makes him popular among his industry peers. “Professional standards are incredibly important in this business. There are two things that can never be taken away from you, your knowledge and your integrity. I like to practice giving away my knowledge to help others, but I will never give away my integrity. That you can never get back, and it means everything in life and in real estate.”

Dan joined Bennion Deville Homes after an industry colleague recommended it to him. Once he spoke to Bob Deville, Co-Founder, he knew it was the right fit for him for many reasons. “Bob and I sat down and he echoed the same principles, ethical standards, and ideas about the industry that I have always shared. I knew that this was the best place for me based on that alignment of values. I was impressed by the in-house support we offer to our agents, including fully-staffed marketing and technology departments and a legal team, as well as the entrepreneurial spirit that Bob and Bob share with the entire company,” Dan concludes.

Says Bob Deville, Co-Founder of Bennion Deville Homes, “I am proud to introduce Dan as the new Managing Broker of our La Mesa Village office. His exceptional reputation and ethical approach to business, local affiliations and connections with industry leaders, and ability to cultivate and coach talent make him the perfect fit to lead our La Mesa Village office. I would like to welcome Dan to the Bennion Deville Homes family.”
